I'VE STARTED
MY TRANSITION

SOON
YOU TOO?

New horizons are opening up, and soon, thanks to the progress of science, we'll be moving beyond this narrow human/animal binary.

Yes, we're approaching human-animal hybridization.

Whether we feel like a gazelle or a rhinoceros, our transidentities deserve to be fulfilled.

Far from the limits of a bygone world, anything is possible. So let's call on the government to speed up research into humanimale transidentity.
