

my veil, my choice

Woke-Machine.org

Let's refuse to equate the veil with submission and show how it can be a source of beauty for women.

Veiled, we sing of freedom and dance with grace, voluptuousness and euphoria.

Veiled, we laugh with happiness and love with passion.

Our bodies, and everything we put on - or don't put on - to dress them, belong to us!

